

Ralph Kalies

Dr. Kalies has proven success in founding and operating several healthcare companies. He has served as Chief Executive Officer of a pharmacy benefit management Company, an outcomes risk and management Company, a research firm, a consulting firm, a software development Company, and a physician practice management Company.

Dr. Kalies, is also the founder of a web-based marketplace for prescription drug products and services. Dr. Kalies is the President and Chief Executive Officer of BidRx, LLC. As an industry innovator, BidRx® brings about cost transparency, consumer empowerment and economic competition needed to create long overdue changes in how we purchase prescription drugs and Medication Therapy Management in this country.

